

Mission Statement:

The mission of the Intervention & Coiled Tubing Association is to enhance communications, gather technical expertise and promote safety, training, competency and industry-accepted practices within the Well Intervention and Coiled Tubing industries.

ICOTA ANNUAL DIRECTOR MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Director Member Information: A Director Member represents a company, corporation, or organization conducting business in the coiled tubing, well intervention, or associated industries. Director Members are responsible for securing their good standing in ICoTA by paying their annual membership fees when due and providing the ICoTA Office with their current contact information. A Director Member in good standing shall have one vote on any issue before the ICoTA Board of Directors. The ICoTA Board is collectively responsible for governing the Association.

Director Members are actively involved in attending ICoTA events and meetings, as well as promoting technical awareness within the well intervention industry by serving on subcommittees and submitting technical papers for publication. Director Members are also encouraged to devote time to and participate in their local regional chapter.
